PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

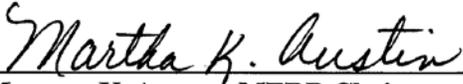

On or about November 7, 2014, the employee/grievant, Carmen Boggs-Baskerville (Boggs-Baskerville) filed a direct of appeal to this Board of her October 17, 2014 dismissal by the Department of Services for Children, Youth and Their Families (DSCYF), Division of Youth Rehabilitative Services (DYRS).

On or about December 8, 2014, DSCYF filed a Motion to Dismiss the appeal, asserting the Board lacks jurisdiction to consider the matter because Boggs-Baskerville held a bargaining unit position; consequently, any appeal of discipline (including dismissal) must be processed through the negotiated grievance procedure.

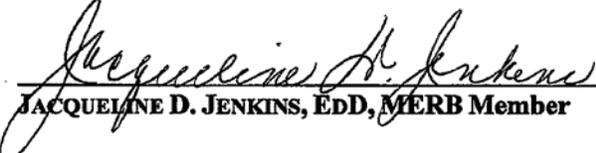

Prior to the presentation of legal argument by the DSCYF on its motion to dismiss, counsel for Boggs-Baskerville stated she did not oppose the motion to dismiss.

DECISION AND ORDER

It is this 24th day of March 2015, by a unanimous vote of 5-0, the Decision and Order of the Board to dismiss Boggs-Baskerville's appeal of her termination, with prejudice.
