TRAINING AND EDUCATION SPECIALIST III

On or about April 30, 2024, Elizabeth Androskaut (“Appellant”) filed a Classification Appeal with the Merit Employee Relations Board (“Board), asserting the Classification Maintenance Review determination reclassifying her former classification of Trainer/Educator II to a Training and Education Specialist II was in error.¹ Ms. Androskaut asserted her job duties met the criteria of a Training and Education Specialist III and requested the Maintenance Review determination be reviewed. The appeal also included input from and the signatures of Appellant’s supervisor, division director, and personnel representative.

¹ 29 Del. C. §5915(c): Any maintenance review classification determination may be appealed to the Merit Employee Relations Board by any affected employee or agency within 30 calendar days of notification. The Merit Employee Relations Board shall hear all maintenance review classification appeals before it in chronological order, beginning with the oldest such appeal unless all parties are in agreement with other such arrangements.

Chapter 59 of Title 29 of the Delaware Code, Merit System of Personnel Administration, Section 5915, Classification; uniformity; appeal of classification, establishes the process for considering the appeal of a maintenance classification determination issued by the Department of Human Resources (“DHR), Division of Classification and Compensation.

This appeal was assigned to the Independent Reviewer (“IR”) hired by the Board for evaluation.² Upon receiving the appeal, the Independent Reviewer (who is trained and experienced in job analysis) reviewed the appeal (including documentation provided therewith), documents provided by the Division of Classification and Compensation on which it relied to reach its determination, the relevant classification specifications, and also interviewed the Appellant.

The IR issued his Recommendation finding, “Based on merit and consistent with the stated intent of the career ladder, I find that the Employee’s appeal for advancement to Training and Education Specialist III is supported by the evidence.”

The IR’s recommendation was forwarded to the parties on December 4, 2025. By email dated December 5, 2025, the Appellant accepted the IR’s Recommendation. By email dated January 5, 2025, the Secretary of the Department of Human Resources also accepted the Recommendation.

Section 5915(f) states, “ If the findings of the independent reviewer are accepted by the employee and the Secretary, the Board shall also accept the findings.”

WHEREFORE, the Recommendation of the Independent Reviewer is hereby accepted.

² The Board acknowledges the significant delay between the submission of the appeal and its assignment to the Independent Reviewer which resulted from its difficulty in identifying and contracting with a qualified IR.

SO ORDERED, THIS 25TH DAY OF FEBRUARY, 2026.
