On or about August 6, 2025, Stephanie Stewart (“Appellant”) filed a Classification Appeal with the Merit Employee Relations Board (“Board”), asserting the Classification Maintenance Review determination reclassifying her former classification of Administrative Specialist II to Administrative Specialist was in error.¹ Ms. Stewart asserted her job duties met the criteria of a Senior Administrative Specialist and requested the Maintenance Review determination be reviewed. The appeal also included input from and the signatures of Appellant’s supervisor, division director, and personnel representative.

Chapter 59 of Title 29 of the Delaware Code, Merit System of Personnel Administration,

Section 5915, Classification; uniformity; appeal of classification, establishes the process for considering the appeal of a maintenance classification determination issued by the Department of Human Resources (“DHR”), Division of Classification and Compensation.

This appeal was assigned to the Independent Reviewer (“IR”) hired by the Board for evaluation.² Upon receiving the appeal, the Independent Reviewer (who is trained and experienced in job analysis) reviewed the appeal (including documentation provided therewith), documents provided by the Division of Classification and Compensation on which it relied to reach its determination, the relevant classification specifications, and also interviewed the Appellant.

The IR issued his Recommendation finding that, “Based on the totality of the duties outlined by the Employee, as supported and reaffirmed by her immediate supervisor, the appeal for reclassification to Senior Administrative Specialist is supported.”

The IR’s recommendation was forwarded to the parties on January 20, 2026. The Appellant accepted the IR’s Recommendation by email on February 2, 2026. By email dated February 20, 2026, the Secretary of the Department of Human Resources also accepted the Recommendation.

Section 5915(f) states, “ If the findings of the independent reviewer are accepted by the employee and the Secretary, the Board shall also accept the findings.”

WHEREFORE, the Recommendation of the Independent Reviewer is hereby accepted.

² The Board acknowledges there was a delay between the submission of the appeal and its assignment to the Independent Reviewer which resulted from its difficulty in identifying and contracting with a qualified IR.

SO ORDERED, THIS 12TH DAY OF MARCH, 2026.
